Data Protection

Information:

We will not provide any of your details to a third party without your permission.

You have the right to see any information about you that we hold in a computer or paper retrieval system, to request changes to have it altered or removed.

We may compile statistics from time to time, but these will never include references to a particular individual. Where this is the case, processing, whether by means of computer or otherwise, will take place in accordance with the provision of the Data Protection Acts 1984 and 1998.

We may include you in our internal mailing or emailing list but we will never sell or give these lists to a third party.

What we do with the information you give us:

We will hold your information confidentially and use it to try and match you with suitable volunteering opportunities.

Verification:

All of our opportunities require copies of Personal Identification to support your application.

Due to the nature of some of our opportunities, The ManKind Initiative will require a DBS check. The check is performed by a verified agency and should this be required for the opportunity you have selected, you will be informed of the documents required.

Please note that a criminal record will not necessarily prevent you from volunteering with us. However, because of the vulnerability of some of the people with whom we work, we reserve the right to conduct such checks as necessary.
