(3) Who is killing who?

The Home Office confusingly includes in these figures where there has been a homicide due to an emotional/adulterous relationship (Man A kills Man B because Man B is having an affair with Man A's wife). This cannot be terms as intimate partner homicide in any known undersating of actual intimate partner homicide.

It means that over the three period set out in (2), of the 38 men definitely known to have been a victim of homicide by a (ex) intimate partner, 33 were killed by a woman and 5 by a man.
